

EG strengthens the Private Wealth division with Mark Weingarth

26 OCTOBER 2023 – (Sydney, Australia) EG is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Weingarth as Director of Business Development within the Private Wealth division.

Mark brings more than 15 years of experience in wealth management, including asset management, structured investments, and commercial property. Mark was with Macquarie Group for almost seven years as a Director within the Banking and Financial Services Division. More recently, Mark worked at Charter Hall as NSW State Manager, responsible for raising capital in Private Wealth and Wholesale markets. At EG, Mark will play an integral role in further strengthening the presence of EG's Private Wealth solutions.

In May 2023, EG announced a joint venture with Msquared Capital to offer private debt investment opportunities to diversify the portfolio of investors. The newly created role reflects EG's intentions to increase the exposure of its expanded offerings to a broader network of wholesale investors and family offices.

Mark Weingarth, Director of Business Development - Private Wealth, said: "It is an incredibly exciting time to join EG as the division focuses on scale and growth. EG is a dynamic business with very astute leadership, confident of delivering great outcomes for new and existing investors."

Rodney Walt, Head of Private Wealth at EG Funds, said: "We are excited to build on the success of EG's private wealth and enhance our capabilities. With Mark's appointment, we now possess an expansive range of expertise to facilitate additional momentum to grow our community of investors."

EG Private Wealth partners with private investors and family offices to uncover investment opportunities that deliver outstanding returns. EG takes a personalised and aligned approach to every opportunity.
